1. Long-term Strategy (the main features) of IMEKO for the period 2013-2019

The main lines of the long-term strategy of IMEKO to be considered for the coming 6 years compiled and presented by Mr. Zoltan Zelenka, the Secretary General of IMEKO during the 56th General Council Session held in London, on September 1, 2013:

The strategic goals belonging to the following topics are:

- the improvement of the structure, the organization, the operation of IMEKO
- the upgrade of the structure and operation of the Technical Committees
- the upgrade of the international recognition and scientific standing of IMEKO
- the motivation of actors in IMEKO
- the enhancement of the quality of the publications and WEB presence (WEB design and content management as well as procedures of reviewing for publications incl. proceedings).

The structure, the vision, the mission together with the goals, objectives and action plans based on timelines and persons responsible for 'to do' tasks.

The vision of IMEKO is being an effective worldwide organization capable of implementing successful events and providing possibilities for publications with a high impact factor.

The mission of IMEKO is complex and associated with multiple tasks. i.e.:

- the facilitation of the co-operation among scientists and engineers
- the support of the international exchange of scientific and technical information related to developments in the world of measurement and in the application of instrumentation in scientific research and industry
- effective communication (with a good feedback mechanism and review cycles at regular intervals) and policies are essential
- a yearly evaluation of the developments and changes is indispensable

This strategy is mandatory to all Officers of IMEKO in order to reach a dynamic and strong Confederation with active delegates with proactive thinking from the Member-Organizations and the Technical Committees in this – in all respect – accelerated world.

5. ISBN for IMEKO Proceedings – Relationship to the International ISBN Agency

A relationship was established between the International ISBN Agency and the Secretariat of IMEKO in Budapest for the ISBN assignments related to the Proceedings of the Confederation. The Secretariat is assigned as the contact point for the Proceedings of IMEKO. Anybody may contact the Secretariat for ISBNs regarding all publications to be issued by the Confederation.

The publisher-identifier prefix allocated by the International ISBN Agency to IMEKO is 978-92-990073, a prefix which allows for the numbering of up to 10 publications. All product forms of a given work made available separately to the public (print, CD-ROM, html, pdf, etc.) each one should be assigned a different ISBN number. The same applies to separate language versions of a given work they too should carry different numbers. We can use these numbers for both commercial and free-of-charge publications and brochures. However, if the free publications are not intended for the distribution outside IMEKO, they should not be given an ISBN number.

6. IMEKO Award Program

Besides the present IMEKO awards i.e. Distinguished Service Award (DSA) and György Striker Junior Paper Award there were proposed further ones by the President of IMEKO, Prof. Pasquale Daponte:

- Award for the Best Woman Author's Paper
- Award for the Best Paper for A Young Researcher (below the age of 35 years)
- Mrs. Striker Woman Paper Award
- Measurement Journal Award for the Most Downloaded Paper each year
- Award of Technical Committees

7. Advertising possibilities in the new e-Journal Acta IMEKO

The new open-access online journal of IMEKO publishes scientific articles that are extended versions of selected papers presented during IMEKO events, i.e. conferences, symposia and congresses. It is managed entirely using a web-based information service available at the URL:

<http://acta.imeko.org/index.php/acta-imeko>

There are possibilities for the Technical Committees, the Member-Organizations of the Confederation to publish their advertisements about metrological items or news in the field of measurement on a page free of charge. The placement of the submitted material is provided by the Journal Editor.

For further details the staff of the e-Journal Acta IMEKO can be contacted as below:

- the Editor-in-Chief is Professor Paolo Carbone (paolo.carbone@unipg.it) from Italy,
- the Honorary Editor-in-Chief is Professor Paul Regtien (paul@regtien.net) from the Netherlands.

8. System for the central management of IMEKO events

A central system ‘Conferences IMEKO’ was set up for the management of events (IMEKO conferences, symposia, workshops) <http://conferences.imeko.org>. All the event organizers were encouraged to use this system free of charge. The electronic platform is configured for IMEKO by the Information Officer, Dr. Dirk Roeske and his colleagues from Physikalisch-Technische Bundesanstalt (PTB) in Braunschweig/Germany.

9. Reports of two recent special events in the field of Metrology and Measurement Technology:

9.1 16th International Congress of Metrology in Paris/France

On its 30th anniversary, the French IMEKO Member Organization, the Collège Français de Métrologie (CFM) organized the 16th International Congress of Metrology in Paris/France, between 7-10 October, 2013.

The Congress took place at the Porte de Versailles in Paris in association with the Enova Exhibition. The event was the place for broad technical exchange – unique in Europe – assembling all major players in the world of measurement. There were 850 participants and exhibitors, 36 countries were represented, 35 % of participants came from abroad, mainly from Europe, but also from North and South America, Africa, the Middle East and Asia. 53 companies were present in the Metrology Village in the heart of the event. 68 % of participants were industrial users of measurement in all types of sectors: analysis and metrology laboratories, equipment manufacturers etc.

11 % were representatives of major national and international organizations, national laboratories of the large European countries, ministries, accreditation bodies, international organizations etc. 13 % were academics or researchers and 8 % came from other backgrounds: hospitals, training organizations, consultants, the press etc. In addition, 5,900 people visited the Enova Exhibition dedicated to electronics, measurement, optics and RF technology.
